

Your task for today:

Apply your learning to the real world. This is a challenge for 18 years old after Year 13. Order of the day is to find a car.

There are a range of factors that can affect a car's performance, such as fuel, air, and maintenance. The car's performance is affected by the weather, the road, and the driver.

Instructions:

Now you have a car, you need to find a car that is suitable for your needs. You need to find a car that is suitable for your needs.

Order of the day is to find a car that is suitable for your needs. You need to find a car that is suitable for your needs.

So, the factors that affect a car's performance are:

Brunel University London facts

id you know?

- Brunel University London is a leading university in the UK. It is a 10-15 minute walk from the city.

id you know?

- 150 of the world's top 200 universities are ranked in Brunel University London. Near 14,000 students and 4,000 staff members.

id you know?

- You can find a car for less than 95% of the price. The car is a great value for money.

id you know?

- There are a lot of things to see and do in London. The city is a great place to visit. The city is a great place to visit.

Applied learning for the real world

Support that gets you ready for work

No wonder it's called Greater London

The whole world on one campus