

We're delighted you're thinking about studying at Brunel University London.

Q. What are the main reasons for the increase in the number of international students studying in the UK?

O. The main reasons for the increase in the number of international students studying in the UK are:

I. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students. Brunel University London is a leading institution in the UK, offering a wide range of courses and a high quality of education.

Sample lecture/coursework questions

- Q. What are the main reasons for the increase in the number of international students studying in the UK?
1. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students.
 2. E. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students.
 3. M. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students.
- M. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students.
4. E. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students.
 5. E. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students.
 6. B. The UK has a long history of being a leading destination for international students.

Reading list

1. E. M. : R.C. H.

2. M. E. : F. B. E. J.

3. E. M. : J.L. M. J.N. B. L.G. K.

4. A. L. : A.M. O. A. R. C.

